Forget freeze-dried astronaut meals and bags of stale, store-bought gorp. Finally, here’s a cookbook that complements the magic of gathering around a campfire and sharing a meal with friends. From the IACP Award–winning authors of The Picnic, which brought taste and style to eating outdoors (in the daytime), comes its companion, for leaving civilization behind and dining under the stars. A mix of dishes to make ahead and meals to cook on-site, The Campout Cookbook includes more than 75 recipes for wood-fired skillet pizzas; backcountry stews and chilies; fire-roasted vegetables and cast-iron breads; unexpected dips, jerkies, and high-energy bars; breakfasts to satisfy that yawning hunger that comes from sleeping in the fresh air; s’mores, of course (including Vanilla Bean Dream Marshmallows & Co. and Dark Chocolate Raspberry Caramel Fire-Ban S’mores); and cocktails, coolers, warm libations for chilly nights, and a Blood Orange Bug Juice. Plus there’s inspiration and know-how for every avid camper and enthusiastic neophyte: How to find a suitable campsite and build a campfire specifically for cooking over, and how to keep it going. Stargazing for city slickers. A troubleshooting guide. And the definitive packing list and camp kitchen essentials. Just add a few scary stories for a truly memorable campout.

6 X 8 In, 48Pp, 48 Full-Color Illustrations, Ages 7 To 11 With These Sensible and Sensitive Safety-First Recipes, This Upbeat Book Guides Kids Through The Fun and Rewarding
Process of Campfire Cooking. Whether they're at a campground with other campers, in the forest with a scouting group, or simply in their own backyard with their family, they'll become familiar with all the basic methods for successful outdoor cooking. Three cooking methods are explained with recipes given for each: cooking on a stick, in a pouch, and on the grill.

One of the great "back to nature" joys of camping is the experience of cooking outdoors. Somehow, a meal cooked under the stars tastes more delicious than any gourmet feast you could whip up at home. Of course, camp cooking takes some forward planning, a few safety common-sense precautions and the right equipment. If you dream of cooking over a campfire, make sure you know exactly what you are doing - or take along someone with some experience. This cookbook includes simple and healthy recipes for your family camping trips including 90 recipes for Dutch oven, grilling, campfire, foil packet cooking, camp breakfasts, desserts, vegetables and more. As well as tips on keeping food safe while camping, a camping checklist and ideas to consider when selecting a good campsite.

Whether you're taking the kids camping for a weekend, a week or even longer, this is the perfect addition to your gear - offering delicious, easy-to-make food the whole family will love. Camping is all about simplicity, being outdoors and taking the best from your surroundings. Away from the humdrum routine that cooking for a family at home becomes, Tiff and Jim Easton show how outdoor cooking can be a great adventure. Wake up and try Barbecued Strawberry Croissants, for example, made with fresh, local strawberries in the early morning sunshine; cook Fish Kebabs for lunch after a long walk along the beach; make a Lamb & Aubergine Tagine to eat around a campfire as the sun sets; and share Chocolate Fondue with Toasted Fruit & Marshmallows afterwards. Use the meal plans, shopping lists and tips on preparing ahead to make your campsite cooking wonderfully simple. And discover recipes that make the best of the fresh, local produce available - whether it's locally caught fresh fish or foraged mushrooms. You may have to compromise on comfort, and you may have to walk across a muddy field to get to a cold shower, but with mouth-watering meals, cooked using a few pots and pans from home, you'll be able to sit back and enjoy time with your friends and family. With over 85 family-friendly feasts that all work on a gas stove, barbecue or open fire, this book is an indispensable accessory to any camping trip.
